Property Description

Located in the prestigious Eco-Boutique Community of Los Cumbres in Brasil de Mora, this corner lot offers a perfect combination of exclusivity, nature, and convenience. Situated between Santa Ana and Ciudad Colón, less than five minutes from Route 27 and just 30 minutes from San José, you'll have quick access to both the capital and the Pacific beaches. The community also borders the Escazú and Cerro Colón nature reserves, providing an unparalleled green setting. This lot stands out for its unique topography and panoramic views of the Central Valley and the Poás and Barva volcanoes, making it the perfect canvas for designing your dream home. Priced at $160 per square meter, it is an exceptional opportunity within a community comprised of approximately 20 exclusive residences that blend harmoniously with their surroundings. The property guarantees privacy and direct contact with nature, surrounded by native flora, vibrant flowers, and a nearby stream that provides a serene atmosphere.
