Property Description

Paradise awaits you in Costa Rica. Located in an established neighborhood in Ojochal, Finca Marañon, this jungle-settling property gives you stunning sunset views. The year-round river that's accessible brings lots of wildlife, including howlers and white face monkeys. The land area is 14,132 M2, and there is additional room if you want to build more houses. This is the perfect home if you plan to relocate or for an investment property. The open-air design of this property allows natural light to come through with large windows and an accordion-style glass door. The fully-equipped kitchen features a nice contrast of black and white cabinetry and white granite countertops. There is also a kitchen island with an electric range and Stainless-Steel appliances. Pendant lighting accents the room. The living room is inviting, with a comfortable sectional, a love seat, and ceiling fans to move the breeze around.
