Property Description

Stand close to the edge; it's invigorating. Your heart rate increases as you step out of your comfort zone and lean to look over the 500' cliff. With the steady breezes in your face, they rise off the calm ocean, cooling as they push clouds up through the valleys to bring life-giving rains. Enjoy peace and tranquility, breathe oxygen-rich air in a clean environment, and revitalize your spirit. Enjoy viewing the abundant exotic native wildlife surrounded by the lush tropical jungles of Costa Rica. Gaze down on the lush green coffee farms, banana plantations, and pastures, then up panoramic views of majestic mountains to the Pacific Ocean and the unique natural phenomenon of Playa Ballena. Wake up daily to the iconic Whale's Tail formation on the beach. During low tide, the ocean water retreats to crescent shapes on either side, thus revealing a strip of sand and rocks. From above, this looks like the shape of a whale's tail.
