Property Description

Santa Ana is fully established as one of the most coveted areas in San José due to its great accessibility to the country's capital city and Central Pacific area via the neighboring Route 27 highway, and the amazing cosmopolitan comforts inherent to its commercial development, ranging from high end shopping to stand out international cuisine. As part of the broader Costa rica real estate landscape, the area continues to attract both investors and lifestyle buyers. Despite the town's urban appeal and strategic location, one rarely discussed feature is how it safely keeps its rural origins. BOSQUE DE LA CHIMBA ESTATE is like a portal to a simpler time in Santa Ana. Surrounded by an abundance of fruit trees and coffee plants, simply arriving at the property is an immersive experience. As part of the exclusive Santa ana real estate market, the property reflects a unique balance between tranquility and accessibility.
