Property Description

There are very few moments in Tamarindo where everything lines up like this. Location, ocean views, and the hard work already done for you. This is one of those opportunities. Set in a prime position just a short walk to the beach, restaurants, shops, and everything that makes Tamarindo one of the most sought after beach towns in Costa Rica, this Ocean View Lot offers the lifestyle everyone is chasing. Morning surf checks, sunset dinners, and the ease of being able to park your car and simply enjoy the town on foot. Besides Prime Location, what truly sets this property apart is what has already been completed. The lot comes with both a water meter and electrical meter installed, something that has become increasingly difficult to secure in Costa Rica. Many buyers spend months or even years trying to obtain these. Here, it is already done, giving you a massive head start and real peace of mind.
