Property Description

A spacious 40,476 square meter (10-acre) farm is for sale in Puriscal, San José, offering breathtaking 360-degree panoramic views of the region's majestic mountains. This property stands out for its generous size and natural resources, including a variety of fruit trees and over 500 teak trees – ideal for building cabins or crafting luxury furniture. Reduced Sale Price: 60 million colones. The property has easy access and includes a 70 m² (753 sq ft) house to restore, with 3 bedrooms and 1 bathroom. Originally used by the caretaker, the house is habitable but modest and would benefit from renovations to reach its full potential. In addition, the farm features natural water springs and a varied topography with mountainous areas and natural terraces, adding to its rich and diverse landscape. This farm represents a unique opportunity for those looking to acquire a large piece of land with abundant natural resources and development potential.
