Property Description

The lodge is just a few kilometers from the center of Ciudad Quesada, in the community of La Abundancia. Although Ciudad Quesada is not a tourist city, it has extremely friendly people who welcome travelers. The true attraction of this city is its fresh, clean air and its beautiful mountains. There are hot springs available in the area where you can enjoy a spa experience that perfectly complements the city's accommodation offerings, including luxury spas and resorts. It is also accessible by air, both privately and commercially. The city is close to many of the most popular places to see volcanoes. The Juan Castro Blanco National Park is an excellent place for birdwatching and has three volcanoes on site. Peacocks, hawks, black guans, and quetzals abound throughout the 35,000-acre park. The park is also home to many species of monkeys, goats, armadillos, frogs, snakes, and lizards.
