Property Description

This Green development is a secluded gated community located in the Costa Rican Southern Pacific rain forest mountains of Baru just fifteen minutes east of Dominical Beach. The secure privacy and tranquil environment of this community hosts sweeping river valley views of the Baru River intermingled with the tropical sounds of the rain forest. There are 35 lots in this "Eco-Friendly" Development, a number of which have already been sold. One of the lots has been dedicated as a river and waterfall park for the personal use of those in the community. The mountain elevations offer relaxing breezes, breathtaking sunsets, an average year round temperature in the low 80s and cool night time temperatures in the low 70s. The lush tropical surroundings of Baru, Dominical are native to a array of exotic plants and animals such as White Face Monkeys, coatis, white tail deer, wild pigs, armadillos, toucans, parrots, among others.
