Property Description

This affordable one bedroom ocean view home is perched well above Uvita with cool mountain breezes; yet only about 10-12 minutes to town center. The home has two floors with the first level being a kitchen, full bathroom, and living room that can open completely to the outdoors making for a tropical open-air lifestyle. The upstairs has a large master bedroom and full on suite bathroom. Next to the home is an additional building pad for a guest house or pool or simply fruit trees and gardens. Also another small pad above the home where there is an old rancho that could be replaced with a studio casita or small pool. This property is a nature lover's dream with absolute tranquility overlooking jungle canopy, mountains, and the Pacific Ocean! Lots of wild life including White-Face and Howler Monkeys consistently passing through the property. Also birders will be thrilled with the numerous species of birds in this area such as; Toucans, Green Parrots, and Scarlet Macaws.
