Property Description

In the southern zone of Costa Rica's Pacific coast is the village of Playa Hermosa de Osa. Centrally located between the surf town of Dominical and the growing town of Uvita, Playa Hermosa still maintains the charm and character of small-town living, just minutes to the beach. The gate opens into a lovely landscaped courtyard with parking, a pool, and access to the various entertainment spaces - Poolside, a raised deck to enjoy the birds, and a front porch to enjoy with a friend. Entering through the front door you will appreciate the high ceilings of the great room with an abundance of natural light. The open concept of the kitchen and living areas allows great airflow to release the heat of the day and bring in the cool evening breeze. With a split floor plan, to your right are two lovely bedrooms with shared baths, and down the hall is the well-appointed master suite with ensuite bath and glass doors out to a private balcony sitting in the jungle trees.
