Property Description

Become is more than a construction project. Become is a lifestyle concept envisioned after realizing that we are a people continuously plugged into our devices and unplugged from each other and our communities. Become is a goal...A goal to strive for. Become a person living with balance, Become a person within a community, Become a community living and evolving in the present. Nosara already embodies this goal and so it was only natural for the creators of this concept to bring the Become vision to this community. Become Nosara is a collaboration in design bringing living space via condominium units to a development that will also provide commercial space for stores and restaurants, and a professional workspace all of which combine to provide both residents and visitors a location to rest, be present, as well as create. Offering 2 bedroom, 2 bathroom units with 90+ sq. mtrs (950+ sqft) of living space.
