Property Description

Finca Las Ventanas offers a rare balance of space, privacy, and accessibility, set just minutes from Playa Potrero and within easy reach of the Flamingo Marina and Playas del Coco. Spanning approximately 47 hectares or 115 acres, this property gives you room to shape your vision, whether that means creating a private estate, a boutique hospitality concept, or a low density residential community. The land unfolds across multiple terraces and natural viewpoints, each offering a different perspective of the surrounding mountains and the Pacific Ocean. Evenings here are defined by open skies and steady sunset views, creating a calm and consistent rhythm to daily life. Infrastructure is already in place, which makes a meaningful difference when planning next steps. The property includes two registered wells and high voltage electricity, allowing you to move forward with confidence and clarity.
