Property Description

Tucked into the lush tropical forest of Playa Negra, this charming concrete-built studio offers a rare opportunity to enjoy privacy, nature, and walkable beach living—all in one of Guanacaste's most desirable surf destinations. Set on a spacious 5,260 m² lot and surrounded by mature Guanacaste and mango trees, the property delivers a true Costa Rica lifestyle experience. Monkeys move through the canopy, tropical birds fill the air, and the peaceful setting creates a sense of retreat while still being just minutes from everything. Located on a gated private road shared with only one neighbor, the home offers both security and exclusivity. From here, you can walk to Playa Negra's renowned surf break, local restaurants, and small-town conveniences—making it ideal for both personal use and rental potential. The studio itself is thoughtfully designed for comfortable, turnkey living, featuring a full kitchen, open sitting area, queen-size bed, built-in storage, and seamless indoor-outdoor flow.
