Property Description

Casa Uchuva is a home designed to evoke emotion. Centered around a Guacimo tree, the architecture brings nature into the heart of the home while blending pure materials—wood, stone, and concrete—into a modern design that embraces its tropical surroundings. From the moment you arrive, the craftsmanship is unmistakable. A dramatic 5-by-10-foot pivot entry door opens to interiors defined by extraordinary custom teak woodwork. Teak ceilings with detailed paneling run throughout the home, while bespoke doors and built-ins feel like functional works of art. Every piece of furniture in the home was custom designed specifically for Casa Uchuva, reinforcing the one-of-a-kind character of the property. The kitchen is both striking and functional, featuring San Gabriel black granite countertops, teak cabinetry, stainless accents, and a top-of-the-line Monogram range with pot filler. A lighted wine display integrated into the cabinetry and a premium outdoor BBQ extend the experience of entertaining.
