Property Description

Casa Mil Colinas is a thoughtfully built two-bedroom, two-bathroom home that brings together comfort, craftsmanship, and a close relationship with nature. Solid construction is paired with wood ceilings throughout, lending a quiet warmth and texture to each space. The home is located within the gated community of Montana, approximately 15 minutes from town, where privacy and calm define the setting. The property spans 5,866 m² 63,140 ft² and enjoys both ocean and jungle views, creating a layered landscape that feels open yet sheltered. During the rainy season, a seasonal stream moves through the valley below, adding a gentle, ambient sound that underscores the home's connection to its surroundings. Outdoor living is central here, with a spacious covered patio, a refreshing pool, and an additional platform just below, well suited for a guest house, studio, or complementary structure.
