Property Description

Are you looking for a home where space, natural light, and security blend seamlessly? This property is a strategic enclave in San Rafael Arriba, Desamparados, located at the end of a private easement road with controlled access via an electric gate. It is the perfect setting for those seeking a quiet, secure environment in touch with nature, offering unrivaled development potential thanks to its extensive land. The Highlight: A Lot with Endless Potential The property features a massive backyard of over 700 m² with fruit trees. This area serves as an ideal development platform to:

- Build a second home or an additional guest house for family members.
- Develop rental apartments, taking advantage of the proximity to major employment hubs.
- Create a dream private space for social events, recreation, children, and pets.

Property Layout and Features The house is built entirely of solid concrete and stands out for its high ceilings, which provide a sense of spaciousness and abundant natural light:

- Social Area: Integrated living, dining, and kitchen areas in an open-concept design, with access to an internal courtyard.
